Hearing of persons present:

Anne Killeen 32 South 4th Street- Ms. Killeen has expressed her concern for electric cars within the borough. Her concern is residents running extension cords to their home or residents stealing electricity from another resident. Solicitor Preston replied that if residents are stealing electric from other residents that would be considered a theft and should be reported to the Police.

Bachman- Reported that the library received a letter from Gary Walbert for resignation of the Coplay Library Board. Also submitted to council members was an application for Block Party/Street Closing. Mrs. Bachman also reported that DRC Technologies are complete with the computer-server and everything is working smoothly. Hopefully, the office will have the credit card machine up and running next week sometime.

Mayors Report: Mayor Burkner stated the Health Officer Joe Gill was at the 2nd Street Tavern and went over a few things with the owner. Bachman replied that Chief Bechtel and Health Officer were into inspect the premises and found a few things that need to be addressed. Both have given the owner of the tavern 30 days to comply. Health license has been issued for the business. Burkner also reported that Chief Genovese and himself went over the block agreement and agree to the paper work. If council approves tonight, they should fill the paper work out and return to the police department. Chief Genovese will be issuing picture id's for new employees with the borough. Eisenhauer also said the new employees at the library will need id's as well.

Solicitors Report: Nothing to report

Reports of Officers and Standing committees:

Dreisbach- Reported that DRC Technologies are completed with the project.

Eisenhauer – Mrs. Eisenhauer stated she is concerned running three buildings under the budget. With inflation she has asked the office to do a report on the expenses of each building and will analysis the report. After she is done going through the paper work she will turn it over to Property and the committee of property.

Sodl- Nothing to report

Luckenbach- Nothing to report

Molitoris – Molitoris wanted to remind everyone that Thursday, June 16th will be the first movie night at the pavilion at 8 PM. The dedication for the Parkway Playground will be on June 18th at noon along with the opening of the Coplay pool.

Kern – Police Chief Genovese has received paper work to be completed for the body worn cameras that they are waiting for.

Bodish- President Bodish stated normal operation for the Public Works department. The borough is taking a load (dump truck) of grass a week from the drop off at public works.
